

Messages From The Principal

Dear KCC Families,

It has been delightful to see so many school activities enriching our students both academically and personally. Each day on campus, I am reminded of the strength of our teaching and learning community and the commitment and passion our students bring to their learning experiences.

This week has offered many inspiring examples of student engagement and achievement, including:

PYPX presentations: Our Grade 5 students showed true KCC ownership and confidence across a wide range of self-chosen focus areas. It is a true inspiration to see and thank you too to our Grade 5 families supporting at home with the preparation!

Grade 11 mock examinations: Students approached this demanding period with diligence, resilience, and a strong sense of responsibility. We are incredibly proud of the entire cohort.

This week also marks Neurodiversity Awareness Week, which is something very close to my heart both personally and professionally. Through my leadership journey, I have come to appreciate just how important this area is and how often it can still be underestimated.

For too long, neurological differences were viewed through a deficit lens. I am proud that we increasingly recognize the opposite: these differences can be strengths, even superpowers. The diversity of the human brain is something to value, embrace, and celebrate, especially in education, leadership, and the wider community. Happy Neurodiversity Awareness Week to everyone at Raha International, KCC, and thank you to all who led and attended the workshops. Your contributions brought real value to this important conversation.

With the 'busy' nature of this week there are additional demands on both admin, security, support/admin and teaching colleagues, I thank them all for their efforts in making the school events the high quality and enriching experience that they are. We can see the extended Eid Al Adha holiday in our peripheral vision, where the whole community will have a well-deserved rest and make some cherished memories. I wish you and your families a blessed Eid Al Adha.

Enjoy this issue of KCC Catch Up!

Yours sincerely,
Mr Peter
Principal

Miral Vocal Program

Nabra by Miral is a teen-focused singing talent discovery and development journey that embodies Miral's commitment to arts and cultural development as one of its key CSR pillars.

Designed for teenagers aged 11-19, the program creates inclusive and accessible opportunities for young voices to be discovered, nurtured, and celebrated. The program ensures that creative expression is approachable, engaging, and rooted within the community.

The journey unfolds across three structured phases, scouting, training, and celebrating, offering participants a clear pathway from first discovery to skill development and public performance. This is a long-term program from May to Dec 2026.

Selected 25 teens progress into a long-term coaching program that combines technical vocal training with confidence-building mentorship, and life skills development, supporting both artistic and personal growth.

The program closes with a celebration, where finalists perform in front of a professional jury, friends, and family. This celebration reinforces Miral's role in nurturing cultural talent, empowering teens, and strengthening community connection through the arts, while positioning Abu Dhabi as a vibrant hub for emerging creative talent.

Eid- Al Adha

This mid-term break coincides with Eid al-Adha, the “Festival of Sacrifice.”

Eid al-Adha takes place after Hajj, the pilgrimage to Makkah.

It commemorates the story of Prophet Ibrahim Peace Be Upon Him, (Abraham), who showed deep faith and obedience to Allah when he was willing to sacrifice his son Ismail. Muslims remember this moment by reflecting on gratitude, sharing food with others, and giving to those in need.
